From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People:

EASTER

Easter has a happiness and joy all of its own. The Scriptural readings this past week give us the apparitions of Jesus to individuals and groups of people. The victory was so much greater because of the apparent defeat on the cross.

Jesus did not hesitate to explain to His followers that the Messiah had to suffer first before entering into His glory. You see, the language of love is sacrifice and God had to show His love for us, as the Scriptures indicate. So we too must have our little sufferings before we enter the glory of the eternal life of perfect happiness with Him who loves us so much.

DIVINE MERCY

Think about it for a moment! Is there anyone of us who can say he or she is ready to stand before Jesus and state he or she does not absolutely NEED His mercy? Without exception, all of us must plead for mercy. We pray for mercy frequently at Mass. Yet, we tend to overlook the reality of our absolute need for His mercy! It is like the way we overlook or ignore the great love Jesus has for each of us.

When Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary in the seventeenth century and told her to be an apostle of devotion to His love for us (devotion to the Sacred Heart), it meant we humans were woefully lacking here.

In the twentieth century, in the Lord's goodness, He found it necessary to appear to another nun, the recently canonized St. Faustina, to remind people of the need to beg for His mercy. He longs to give us this mercy if we ask. Part of this devotion to Divine Mercy is that we show mercy to other people. Also, in teaching us a devotion to Divine Mercy through St. Faustina, Jesus admonishes us to exercise more trust in His goodness, His wisdom, mercy, and love for us. So, on the picture of Divine Mercy which He described to St. Faustina, He wanted the words:

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU.

Pope John Paul II declared the first Sunday after Easter to be DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY for the UNIVERSAL CHURCH. The hour Christ died, 3:00 p.m., is a sacred hour. According to St. Faustina, a short prayer to heaven is recommended daily at this hour, professing trust and asking for mercy, if one can think about it at 3:00 p.m. Great numbers of parishes all over the world are sponsoring an hour's devotion to Divine Mercy at 3:00 p.m. this Sunday. We at OUR LADY OF SORROWS, FOR THE FOURTEENTH YEAR, will have the holy hour from 3:00 until 4:00 p.m. We usually have a full church at 3:00 p.m. on this Feast of Divine Mercy!

Why is this Sunday Divine Mercy Sunday? The Gospel assigned for this Sunday has been the one in which Jesus leaves with His Church His power to forgive sins.

Divine Mercy devotion is not just another private devotion. Nothing so corresponds to the essence of our faith, the Mass, as does this devotion. How often during Mass we bow humbly before God asking for mercy! We start Mass with:

“Lord, have mercy...”

Before Communion,

“Lamb of God, Who takes away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.”

In the chaplet, on the large beads of the rosary, we say:

“Eternal Father, I offer the body and blood, soul and divinity of your dearly beloved son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and for that of the whole world.”

That's about the same prayer we all say after the consecration at Mass...

"We offer you this life giving bread, this saving cup."

The Image of Divine Mercy is a great reminder of this needed devotion. It seems to me every home should have this image.

With prayers and blessings,
Father Muller
