From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People:

The Lord took Bishop Foley out of his pain into the perfect happiness of heaven this past Tuesday.

Bishop Foley taught us how to live and taught us how to die. I visited him at St. Vincent's and he told me about his cancerous tumors that were inoperable and were, in fact, taking him very soon through the doors into the next life. He was as ready as could be. He was in great spirits.

As bishop of our diocese he was a most dedicated priest, a model to all of us priests. He never missed the March for Life in Washington, D.C. and was most accessible to all of his priests. From 1994 to 2000 he had a weekly hour on EWTN-TV, explaining the Official Catechism of our Faith. He truly lived his faith, especially with the many problems of a territorially large diocese. He knew every parish and priest personally. Canon Law required that he retire at the age of 75, but retire from the vineyard of the Lord? Never! He visited the prisons. I would meet him in the halls of St. Vincent's where he was visiting the sick. He was found, frequently, in the OLS Adoration Chapel, and he helped Bishop Baker with confirmations and was most accessible to help out at any parish that asked him.

Once retired, he came frequently to celebrate the Student Masses here at OLS. The students loved him because he knew how to relate to them.

Bishop Foley was truly mission-minded and would do anything to help spread the faith. His personal kindness to me and to the priests was such that if he had an opportunity to give that word of encouragement, he never missed the opportunity.

Visitation will be this Sunday at the Cathedral of St. Paul starting at 2 p.m., with Vespers at 6:30 p.m. The funeral Mass will be Monday at 11 a.m.

Last Sunday at 2 p.m. we celebrated First Holy Communion of the Second Graders from OLS School, with Fr. Vernon Huguley concelebrating with me.

Those 25 students were told they were so important, only because Jesus is so important. They were reverent, so well trained, and will never forget the occasion, starting a life of receiving Jesus into their very bodies hundreds of times more.

Being God, and all powerful, containing Himself under the appearance of bread and wine is not a problem. The question is why would He do it? Simply because He loves us so much He wants to be very close to us. We need to love Him so much in return.

This Sunday we have another First Holy Communion, with 31 from the Parish School of Religion who will receive Jesus for the first time in the Eucharist.

We congratulate all 56 on this great occasion of their lives, and thank their parents and catechists for all they do for these beautiful future leaders of our Church.

With prayers and blessings,
Father Muller
