From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People:

Thanks: Those of us who prayed for great weather for the festival should still be thanking God that the rain held up. It poured 60 seconds after the last winner of the raffle drawing was called.

I visited all the places of entertainment and food. The first place was the Trash & Treasure sites. The line started at 4:30 a.m. Wednesday morning. The policy only allows maximum capacity in the gym, and as the early entries were satisfied and left, only then did the lines begin to move into the gym. No shoe store in Birmingham had as many shoes on racks and on display, as seen as one walked into the gym.

Crowds: People lined up all around the Parish Hall for the succulent barbeque, and when they tasted it, claimed it was worth the wait. We had two counters of servers, and people like Michelle Alesce, Vicki Mitchell, Carla Eltz, and Michele Gentry worked constantly and with speed, forming two counters of food to keep the lines moving. With the food sales starting the day before, we ran out of the almost 4 tons of barbeque by 1 p.m. I think this is the first time we even ran out of printed tickets for the raffles.

Dunking Booth: I like to pay tribute to the Mayor of Homewood, a friend of many years. He comes every year and volunteers for the tough job, sitting above a tank of water, waiting for the contestants to hit the bullseye, and down he goes. Usually, the enemies of the person in the cage would buy endless tickets and aim to see the victim fall. When I saw the operation at the Wednesday festival, he had no enemies. Children were buying tickets to study the "cause and effect" relationship of hitting the bullseye. Thanks so much, Mayor, for your participation in our festival!

T.V. Coverage: Chad Gentry, the Grand Knight, was seen on Channel 6, 13, and 42 by 11 a.m., advertising the festival. Each year the crowds of people snowball in number, and this was the 69th year! The crowds were so great that at times I found myself talking to three people at the same time, whether it was the idea that people from the parish wanted to talk and sort of check in with the pastor to be marked present, or those from out of town and out of the parish wanted to know if I still remembered them.

Friendliness is one of the hallmarks of Christianity, and it was not just the friendliness to me, but all those masses of people who were friendly with each other. Barbara Mahwinney, again, a former member of OLS, lives in Chelsea and stated that she started coming to the festival in 1950 and never misses one.

Melanie and her troupe of workers outdid themselves in the gym, and people outdid themselves with the donations. Our maintenance people (2) who usually work on the 4th were "no shows." John Tighe said that John Tombrello walked endlessly with garbage bags to the dumpsters. People and cars would not allow passage of a vehicle.

Some of the priests, such as Fr. Alex and Fr. Jerabek, showed up. Other pastors came and so did Knights from other parishes, asking our Knights how they manage to draw such a crowd for such a well-organized festival. One of our Knights gave this response: "You are 69 years too late!"

Clean up: When the downpour came and rushed people to their cars and home, I am sure the workers collapsed at home. I went into the Parish Hall when all had left and thought it looked like a war zone. All the hot serving plates and remnants of food for so many hundreds were still there. Two worker warriors, John Tighe and Chris Ragusa, were still in the kitchen, looking a little half dead from work, trying to clean a few things so that the cleaning crew would not be too discouraged when they first walked in.

Congratulations to all the winners, the most important prize being the Ernie Eltz Service Award. This was won by Mr. Roger McLaughlin, who served the parish as president of the school board in the 1980's and has worked continuously since 1991 investing our money for the OLS School Foundation. He has doubled the millions we invested since 1991 and more. Remember, the school building belongs to the PSR on Sundays. We could not do without it for all of our children, and the foundation keeps the building maintained. Roger has worked as a volunteer for 26 years straight.

Many thanks to Teresa Pitts Flynn, who ran the Catholic information booth, as well as organized the tours through the church during the hours of the festival.

The donations, the crowds, the necessary workers, and the Grace of God all contributed to the fantastic success and left me with the impression that we outdid ourselves and topped even last year with the huge success.

With prayers and blessings,
Father Muller
