

Our Lady of Sorrows Church
September 2, 2018

From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People:

We priests have daily intentions when we offer the Holy Sacrifice. People make offerings for that first intention, and this is so good. Personally, I reserve two "free intentions" for myself every week for my special intentions.

After we offer Jesus to the Father and a short Profession of Faith, we pray for the Church, the souls in purgatory, and for ourselves. When we pray for the Church we mention the pope and the local bishop by name. However, my first intention of the Mass this past Monday was for Pope Francis.

When the media asked him if Archbishop Vigano's statement to the National Catholic Register was true, Pope Francis neither affirmed it nor denied it (one must realize the problems of the world pass by Pope Francis. Secretaries of State are supposed to filter important memos to the Pope. There are cardinals and archbishops all over the world and different reports are constantly given to the Pope). On the spot it is difficult to remember every memo and degree of sanction his predecessor imposed on Cardinal McCarrick.

Archbishop Vigano made the accusation that Pope Francis knew enough to give Cardinal McCarrick full sanctions, but did not do it immediately and released whatever sanctions given by Pope Benedict. When the abuse of a minor hit the press, full sanctions were imposed on the depraved cardinal by Pope Francis (no public Mass, no lectures, no travel. Stay at home to pray and do penance).

Some have asked for Pope Francis to retire. The Pope may take weeks or months to think and rethink about what is best for the Church.

Francis has taken strong measures of "zero tolerance," even for bishops who might have enabled the predators, so serious is the offense against the will of God. We all should pray for the Pope and for the Church and keep in mind the following:

- It is the office of the pope which Jesus established. The primacy of Peter was not for him personally, but for the good of the Church, and, as Jesus said to the first pope about the Church Jesus was founding, the gates of hell would not prevail against it.
- When Peter was martyred in the year 65 A.D., the baptized community knew what Jesus wanted and elected Linus, Cletus, Clement, etc., to the present Pope Francis.
- Pope Francis has been a great pope, and whether the resignation process on the basis of the above issue would be good for the Church, he, in his goodness and with much prayer, will ultimately make a decision.
- If the Pope does retire, the cardinals will convene and elect another pope. It is the office of the papacy that bonds Catholics together and in union with the doctrines of Jesus and His presence in the Eucharist.

When, in the summer of 1956, I was standing among 2000 people to see Pope Pius XII, I told myself, since I don't follow celebrities, I am leaving this place. Then I told myself you are not waiting to see Eugene Pacelli, you are waiting to see the direct successor of St. Peter! It is this office of the papacy that we follow, whoever is in the office of Peter at the time. The office of the papacy was not for Peter himself, but for the unity of the Church. The Catholic Church is the one founded by Christ, with 266 different men occupying the office. When a Churchman falls, it is not the Church that falls. The Church will exist until the end of time.

I had a professor in the seminary who said, "If Pope Alexander VI could not kill the Church, nobody can!"

Pope Francis is an extremely holy man, and if he made a disciplinary mistake, with the help of the Almighty he will do what he thinks is good for the Church. As the human "vicar of Christ" on earth, he deserves our extra prayers, especially at this time.

With prayers and blessings,
Father Muller

First Light Shelter for Homeless Women and Children is located in the heart of downtown Birmingham. It offers the only emergency shelter accepting homeless women with children 24 hours a day.

Volunteering at First Light can be a deeply gratifying experience. We often hear how our volunteers get so much more than they give. Our Lady of Sorrows works with the shelter approximately 14 days a year. If you would like to volunteer to provide food or service for the shelter, please send your email address to Leslie Bentley at leslie@flanaganllc.net. All food donations can be left at the OLS Mom's Day Out Nursery. Thank you!

Dear wonderful Ladies,
Bible Study begins September 18. Jesus wants a personal relationship with each one of us. He loves us so much, He died to save us from our sins. He rose from the dead and defeated the enemy and gave us life everlasting in heaven with Him. St. Jerome said if you want to know Jesus, you have to know His Word. His Word is very powerful and helps us in all of life's problems and joys. We have a wonderful, loving, happy, joyful group, and we welcome anyone, no matter their age or Bible knowledge. We begin Sept. 18, but you can join any time. Call Mary Ann at 908-2728 and leave a message with your name and number. Hope to see you there so we can share our love and joy with you.
