From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People:

Even when people "linger" waiting for the Lord to take them, we still do not know the day nor the hour. I gave Roger McLaughlin the Anointing of the Sick and the Apostolic Blessing less than 48 hours before the Lord picked the day to take him. That day was the Feast of All Saints! Not All Souls Day, when we primarily pray for those in purgatory. As the Feast of All Saints dawned and at that early hour on the Feast, the Lord took Roger, of our many saintly people from the parish, to Himself and into perfect happiness of heaven.

In the first reading on this great feast, we are told that those seen in St. John's vision of heaven come from every nation, every race, every walk of life, and with every tongue. Salvation is a gift from God, as the multitude before the throne and before the Lamb were singing: "Salvation comes from our God who is seated on the throne and from the Lamb."

Being a saint is the most important thing we do in this life. Leon Bloy, great French novelist, said:

"The greatest tragedy on this earth is not to be a saint."

Pure and simple: Eternity is just too long to miss that eternity of perfect happiness and to end up with an eternity of horrible suffering. As Jesus said:

"What does it profit a man to gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul?"

Heaven is that DYNAMIC RETIREMENT. It is that NEW ADVENTURE. We are people of HOPE, which means we look forward to good things in the future. When I view the people at daily Mass and those visiting the Chapel of our Savior and also those who see

Sunday Mass as the highlight of the week, I see people of faith and hope who are investing in the treasures of heaven.

Here are five characteristics of a saint:

- 1) Saints were filled with the LOVE OF GOD. They have chosen God above all others and made a commitment to Him. They frequently pray: "Here I am Lord, I have come to do your will. Speak, Lord, your servant is listening!" If you love someone, you want to do what they want you to do. So it is with our love of God. It is a constant "call and response."
- 2) Saints love other humans, even one's enemies, and one can never find a stingy saint.
- 3) Saints are humble, attributing to God all that they have and all that they are able to do.
- 4) Saints are people of prayer. Some spend hours in prayer. Others do not pray for hours, but when they do it is with devotion and commitment, and they make helping others a prayer.
- 5) Saints are not perfect. Jerome had a fearful temper. There is a picture of St. Jerome with a rock in his hand, beating his breast, asking God for mercy. The pope of the time saw the picture and said, "Jerome, if it had not been for that rock and your repentance, we would never have canonized you."
- 6) Saints have perseverance like the blind man, who kept shouting: Jesus of David, have pity on me. Nothing could stop him from repeating this.

There are so many non-canonized saints; people who live ordinary lives with extraordinary love of God and neighbor. Sainthood is not made of Carrera marble, but out of the pebbles and stones of everyday life. Pope John Paul II loved to canonize married people. I think his purpose was to help us realize that everyone is called to Sainthood. St. Paul, in his 1st Letter to the Corinthians, told them they were all called to be saints. In the midst of many different people with different circumstances, we are all called to be saints.

With prayers and blessings,
Father Muller
