

Our Lady of Sorrows Church

March 21, 2021

From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People:

Below is an open letter to John and Elizabeth Ann Montgomery after the tragic loss of their daughter, Annie.

Dear John and Elizabeth Ann,

Fr. Frankline, OLS and I feel deeply your loss of Annie, but at the same time, I understand along with that feeling of loss is the complete faith and acceptance of God's will. We have to admit, He knows what is best for Annie and for all of us "in the long run." Still, there is that difference between grief and acceptance.

The ultimate truth is heaven waits for each of us. If we are able to know enough to exercise our free wills, we can mess up God's plan for us. Annie never had that opportunity to "go against God" in the slightest way.

The Church has canonized some 50 children around Bethlehem, whom Herod had slaughtered, thinking he could kill Jesus. These children are irrevocably in heaven. So, it is with Annie. Like the Holy Innocents, Annie had a "connection" with Jesus. Perhaps an even greater one, since with baptism, she was officially adopted by God as His own child and stood to inherit from our heavenly Father the glorious Kingdom of Heaven.

Accidents like this leave us, sometimes, with the if only litany, but when God calls, whether on the ground, in the air, or under the water, He has a reason. We could always guess at His infinite wisdom. This could be the best way to bring your family even closer together. We don't know His wisdom, but trust in Him we must. This is the faith we profess, that she was the first in your immediate family to enter the indescribable happiness of heaven. She is with God and so many prayers by so many, especially those who have co-created her, her parents.

No prayer goes to waste, and there must have been thousands of prayers for Annie, and I am sure they are being applied to her wonderful parents.

We all are heading for the finish line, and Annie simply got there first.

Blessings and more prayers for her most wonderful parents.

Love and prayers,

Father Muller

Bishop Raica has extended the dispensation from the obligation to attend Holy Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation through Sunday, May 23, the Solemnity of Pentecost. We will continue to livestream Masses. The moral obligation of keeping the Lord's Day holy remains, even for those who use the dispensation and do not attend Mass.

There will be no Noon Mass on Tuesday, March 30. The priests will concelebrate the Chrism Mass with the Bishop at the Cathedral of St. Paul.

Holy Spirit 101

We received the gifts of the Holy Spirit at our sacramental baptism and confirmation, but often aren't taught how to practically yield to those gifts in our daily lives. The HS101 course combines scripture, the catechism, and lives of the saints, with practical exercises and safeguards for ministry. Come deepen your faith and awaken the charisms in our parish!

7-week small group study

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Jesus calls us forth from our graves of apathy and passivity. How will your new life make a difference? Consider ministry in the Church. (John 11:1-45)
For all our ministers of care with the sick and dying and their families.

The Permanent Diaconate has been present in the Diocese of Birmingham in Alabama since 1973. With the arrival of Bishop Steven Raica in 2020, and at his direction, the Office of the Permanent Diaconate is looking to identify men who are interested in the Permanent Diaconate for the next formation class. Although the date for the start of the new class has not been set by Bishop Raica, the Office of the Permanent Diaconate will begin to develop a list of men who are interested in obtaining more information about the formation process. It is hoped that once the current restrictions have been relaxed, and after additional review by Bishop Raica, there will be informational sessions and an opportunity for men, and their wives, to learn more about the Permanent Diaconate and the formation process in the future. Men who are interested in the Permanent Diaconate can contact Deacon Chris Rosko via email at crosko@bhmdiocese.org.
