From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People,

Congratulations to all Mothers today. The first of the ten commandments that pertain to our neighbor is: HONOR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER. The reasons are simple: First, we cannot do for our parents what our parents have done for us. We owe them endless gratitude. Secondly, there can be no peace in the family without authority and the respect for it. Hence, God made is explicit: Honor thy father and they mother. Even if our parents are in the next world, let us give them our thoughts and words of thanks. May all mothers enjoy their children as the children celebrate Mother's Day.

This past Wednesday the Holy Spirit came to the PSR 8th graders. The OLS School 8th graders had 28 students confirmed and the PSR had 40 for a total of 68 receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation this year.

Many thanks to the parents, sponsors, and catechists. Many congratulations to those newly confirmed who have strengthened their relationship with God, taken on more responsibility, and realize that their education in the faith has not stopped. They should look forward to those high school religion classes at John Carroll and on Sundays with the PSR program taught by Carol Wiget and Ginny Dooley.

With prayers and blessings,
Father Muller

P.S. Below are some words of wisdom spoken by mothers.

"The quickest way for a parent to get a child's attention is to sit down and look comfortable."

Lane Olinghouse

"When my kids become wild and unruly, I use a nice, safe playpen. When they are finished, I climb out."

A Prayer in Gratitude for Our Mothers

*Good and Gentle God, we pray in gratitude for our mothers and for all the women of theory who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You, who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings.
Give them the strength to live and to be loved in return, not perfectly, but humanly.
Give them the faithful support of husband, family and friends as they care for the physical and spiritual growth of their children.
Give them joy and delight in their children to sustain them through the trials of motherhood.
Most of all, give them the wisdom to turn to you for help when they need it most. Amen.*
