

Our Lady of Sorrows Church

July 11, 2021

From the Pastor's Desk

My Dear People,

Prophet is a word that tends to make one think about one who can tell the future. The truth is that the word means "teacher." The holy men of God down through the centuries taught that if the people did not reform, there would be punishment. When they did not reform and punishment came, the people saw these teachers (prophets) as men who knew the future.

In God's relationship with the human race there is nothing as important as a PROPHET, one who teaches on behalf of God. The greatest prophet of all time is Jesus. HE TAUGHT ON BEHALF OF GOD. Yes, He spoke with a human voice, but it was God Himself who spoke. In last Sunday's first reading, read from the prophet Ezekiel, that he was commanded to speak on behalf of God. God told him he would be rejected, but at least they will know God sent them a Prophet.

In the first reading today, the prophet Amos was called by God to speak on behalf of God and the message today was that they needed to worship in Judea at the temple of Jerusalem. They built their own temple. Amos also described their relationship with God:

"You sell the just man for silver:
You trample the poor into the dust of the earth;
Your sons and their fathers go to the same prostitute."

So God threatened through the prophet as follows:

'I will crush you to the ground like the wheels of a loaded wagon crushes the earth. There will be no escape. Strong warriors will fall; and the horseman will not ride fast enough to escape.'

When Jesus started his public life, he had to make a decision ... the heavy hard words of the old testament prophets, or teaching the mercy of God. In the Gospel today, Jesus sends his apostles out teaching about imitating Jesus. We can't imitate Jesus completely, but we share in the work of imitating Jesus.

When we baptize in the liturgy of the sacrament of Baptism, it states that we share in the priesthood of Jesus. We share in His prophetic (teaching role) and we share In His kingdom.

With Christ, we offer Jesus and ourselves after the consecration at Mass to the Father. With Christ we look forward to the glory of our resurrected bodies and with Christ we are "teachers" of the faith. It starts with parents teaching their children. The Church Catechists are teachers of the way of God. Here is the hard part...In some way we are all short of the way we are to imitate Christ; but life and the journey of faith is a constant effort. I love the examples below of our people spreading the faith:

Walter Busenlehner argued religion with Bo Lovell. Walter invited him to the R.C.I.A. class Bo is one of our best Catholics in the parish today.

One of my former students when his doctor, Dr. DeAtkine, asked about the faith, my former student said here is the phone number of my former religion teacher. Today Dr. DeAtkine is a strong Catholic.

Ferris Stephens discovered the need for a book in Spanish simply written answering the questions teenagers have today (35 in number). He has had the book I wrote translated into Spanish. Bishop Raica's Imprimatur is on it and Ferris has his own strategy to disseminate this book where he said there is a drastic need.

By virtue of our Baptism we all have an obligation to do something to spread the truths of our faith. Think now of someone who has asked you questions about the faith and who might come to the R.C.I.A. class. Most people feel complimented that they were invited. There might be a little rejection on rare occasions. Many prophets suffered great rejection in their attempt to spread the faith

The R.C.I.A. Class is Monday nights at 7 o'clock. Free meal and childcare. We start in three months; but we need this time to work up the courage to invite someone who just might be interested.

Sometimes we don't have to "talk about" our faith, just live it by:

- Being kind to others.
- Forgiving when it is hard.
- Smile, a sign we accept people.
- Greet a stranger.
- Make time for daily prayer.

There is an old saying:

The things you do, speak so loudly that I can't hear a word you are saying.

The Baptismal ceremony says that we all share in the priesthood of Jesus. His kingdom, and His "teaching role" (Prophetic role).

With prayer and blessings,
Father Muller

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

God is sowing seeds of a vocation to ordained ministry and consecrated life. Are you cultivating good soil in you and your family? May the seed take root in your hearts (Matthew 13:1-23)

For parents and teachers, may they cultivate a positive attitude about a vocation to ordained ministry and consecrated life.
